Margit Björklund Sweden

Margit is fascinated of the forms and colors in nature and has taken her inspiration from flowers this time. She shows a bouquet of hibiscuses in different shapes, some in bold colors.

Enrique Linaza Spain

Enrique is an experienced Spanish artist living in Malaga. His painting “Cielo azul” is based on and takes its colors from a small poem written by the Spanish poet Federico García to his friend, the film director Luis Buñuel. Cielo azul, campo amarillo Monte azul, campo amarillo.
Por el camino desierto
va caminando un olivo.
Un solo olivo.

Philip Magee Ireland

Philip, a photographer also living in Malaga, has captured a little bit of Ireland with his camera. It is a project about color and abstraction of the landscape and his images are from all parts of Ireland, north, south, east and west. He shows the beauty and serenity of his homeland, which he composes in his personal style.

The AIA-Group was formed five years ago by professional and dedicated visual artists from around Europe, who are all living and working in Andalucía.
